EXCEEDINGLY ABUNDANTLY by Mike Jones

"I grew up in church, but never understood this scripture before." "I'm a pastor, but Bible School never taught me the things I've learned this first week of classes." "I'm already using this material with scriptures to preach and teach this week." "You (me) can not go, but must stay here to teach us more." These are just some of the testimonies from our first week of MOT-MOT (School of Ministry) classes

MOT-MOT in their area. Leaders of a prominent denomination called several times, pleading for classes in the same village used for their denominational Bible School. They have seen the positive changes in the lives of the students, and the souls saved, and the churches planted, and the Biblical truths powerfully proclaimed. To God be the glory, as He does exceedingly and abundantly far above anything we could ask or think.

us from troubled homes and unusual problems. You prayed for them and God is truly answering. One of the boys that left us to live with his relatives some years ago came to see me "out of the blue". He left us with some problems, but came back to see me in a much better way. He promised me he was doing good in school and church, only needing a uniform for his new school. Joy overflowed my heart when I found in Nguba. Before my departure after the last day of a week of classes, students (spontaneous and voluntary) encourage me and the class by sharing what the Lord has done in their lives that week. The difference this time is that practically every student testified. Calls are coming from all over the country asking for

Results like this can only come when partners like you "hold" us up in prayer and support.

The precious orphans we are blessed with providing total care (often suffering before God provided for them through us) are living mostly happy and stable, which is a miracle. They usually come to him totally faithful, respectful, and loving as he got his new uniform. I believe you will also be blessed by this answer to prayer. This is the norm, not the exception. The problem will become the blessing. The miracles keep coming, because the prayers and support keep coming.

We came to a big tree with poles laying on the ground for benches, where we had arrived for church. This was after driving for more than three hours. We had driven a long time without seeing or hearing of any other church. This is really a missionary work. The overseeing pastor I had prayed for in the year 1993. He and his wife had been married for five years without children, which is a shameful problem in Zambia. The prayer I prayed for him and his wife in 1993 must have been a good one, because they almost immediately got pregnant, and today have eleven children. The church is building, with bricks up to the window level. We met in a school classroom and God moved with power. Every gathering is like a revival service. I don't keep a count of the numbers of people saved, healed, delivered, filled with the Holy Spirit, or the numbers of churches planted (new churches), because I'm chasing the things of God, instead of getting caught up chasing numbers. Let it suffice to say the numbers are very big. I asked the three boys that have been with me at all of these different services and churches, which one did they like the best? They answered together, "All of them!" These boys are far ahead of where I was with the Lord at their ages. They have seen the power of the Holy Spirit in spectacular ways.

Every night after supper we pray together for you, our partners. I know I could never do anything to deserve such an exciting, fulfilling, and fruitful life of ministry. Yet, I heard God call me, and I answered. Calling me would amount to nothing unless He also called you to partner with us. You may not know why God chose you for this ministry, but without your prayers, I should have died many times over. The multitude of changed lives and even changed nations would not have happened through this ministry. What your partnership has done for The Kingdom of God you probably don't realize, but you may have noticed unexpected, undeserved blessings. We will never stop praying for God's favor on your life, because the result of your prayers and support is God's favor raining down on this move of God. We are expecting greater and greater miraculous works of God both in Zambia, and in the lives of our partners. Remain Faithful,
