WITHOUT EXCUSE by Mike Jones

We prayed as we drove to Livingstone, nine eighth and ninth grade orphans along with our family, that we could enjoy the unusual beauty of God’s creation. Specifically, that we could find the animals, the rhino and elephant and giraffe and on and on. Most of the people that have lived relatively near Livingstone all of their lives have never seen Victoria Falls and the wild animals (wild animals near villages were mostly eaten long ago).

We excitedly enter the game park. Faces “lighted up” as we began seeing the animals of our prayers. We saw the whole group of Rhino, leaving only elephant on our list to see. On our way out of the game park, we reached the river where a really big elephant came up right in front of us. You can imagine the children’s amazement, and a little fear, looking up at a creature that could easily flip over our vehicle and kill us all.

We went on to see Victoria Falls, one of the seven natural wonders of the world, got soaking wet, while greatly enjoying the adventure. As we stopped for ice cream before departing for home, which is an extremely rare treat, the children asked for another Bible Study at their home each week. They could have asked me for anything, but only asked for one thing, a weekly Bible Study.

My eleventh grader, Lumba (means Blessing), will lead the Bible Study weekly. When I asked him if he was ready he replied. “Very ready.” I had noticed him leaving the house early every morning walking to school. He told me he carries his Bible and studies with other students that arrive early every day. My “heart” was about to explode, like I had just prayed again with hundreds the “sinner’s prayer”, seeing these teenagers not only drawing closer to God, but leading others into a richer relationship with the only Savior of the world. We all know this is not something that happens by chance. The prayers of our partners go before us, and behind us, and moved these young people to God. I’m eternally grateful, and all of heaven rejoices, that these lowly orphans are being lifted to the top of the mountains. This is what God does when we follow Him.

One of our pastors and MOT-MOT student asked me to show the Jesus Film on the Saturday night of revival services. He was recently called to this very rural church and is working to reach the whole community. An overflow crowd filled the place on a cold night. Some people had no coats, but came in short sleeve shirts to watch the movie. I gave the "altar call" as the movie completed. The vast majority, I didn't count them but it may have been hundreds, raised their hands and stood on their feet to accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. This was followed by those wanting prayer for things like healing, deliverance, the infilling of the Holy Spirit to come forward. The anointing fell on us. Every person I laid hands on began to tremble, as if electricity was flowing through them. I didn't ask them why they came forward, believing/knowing God was showing me how to pray. Many people came forward, so I asked a couple of pastors to come and also pray with and for them. The demon possessed acted shameful, as usual, but all were set free by the power of God. All of the others went back to their seats rejoicing in the "touch of God" healing, performing miracles, and full of the Holy Spirit.

I'm not comparing myself to David, but I think I can understand at least a little him saying, "Cast me not away from thy presence; and take God's great power in Zambia, and Africa. If God hasn't called you to come physically, you are coming spiritually as our partners, praying and supporting this great work.

We started this ministry with my wonderful wife of forty-two years, Linda. I never expected she would finish her race before me, completing God's purpose and reaching her destiny. Surely, she heard the Lord say, "Well done thy good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord." Like Abraham, God had shown her, promised her, some things she never saw. And like Abraham, all of His promises will come to pass. The miracles God had revealed to her in her spirit, great miracles concerning God's power working through this ministry that didn't happen in her lifetime, He has spoken to me that they will surely come to pass. He confirmed it through this fresh anointing and manifested power, IT'S BEGINNING TO HAPPEN! What Linda saw in her spirit, I will see manifested. Bless His holy name.

Remain Faithful,

not thy holy spirit from me (Psa 51:11)." I remember what it was like many years ago, running away from God's presence. I'll not be a fool (a good King James word), doing anything that could take His Holy Spirit, and this anointing, from me. I would love for all of you to see and experience

Prayer

For church government conferences happening.
For building projects about to start.
For supporting more orphans with schooling.

Praises

For revival fires in various places.
For deeper relationships in God of orphans.
For new orphan blankets warming cold season.
