WEDDING

by Mike Jones

I'm often invited to weddings. They are usually well attended. If they are giving me an opportunity to speak, I'll come bringing more good news to the celebration. When invited to be the guest of honor at a wedding in Sinazeze, near Lake Kariba, immediately I heard the Lord say GO. The report from the young man's previous church in Livingstone was, "We lost a good and faithful servant." The invitation included preaching Sunday morning before the wedding that afternoon.

We went a few days early to do some maintenance and repairs at our orphanage in the Valley. Spending time with our children is always a blessing. They are truly exceptional, having Sheri's influence, where she got it all going living there several years. With the help of partners like you, we have built strong and beautiful houses and buildings that should last for many, many generations.

We fixed some plumbing problems and organized for other maintenance and repair projects. It was a joy, not something dreaded. It is like my (designed and built) "babies" needed care. This time of year in the valley is roof is a land mark, like a light house,

Linda loved lighthouses, and ours is lighting God's path of righteousness for all to see. Hurting people follow the light of God to us and find hope and healing in their time of need. I don't know how many (more than I can count) brought babies in desperate need of milk. If for any reason the mother doesn't have milk for her baby, few people can afford the purchase. The milk usually getting very hot, but the Lord blessed us with comfortable temperatures. The boys sleeping in the loft looked out at night and asked, "What city are the lights in the distance from?" The lights are from kapenta fishing boats on Lake Kariba. The fishermen tell us the moon reflecting off of our often saves the baby's life, and the whole family will almost certainly serve the Lord God for the rest of their lives. Like the song, a stream of people you never met will come to you, in this life or in glory, and say, "Thank you for giving to the Lord. I am a life that was saved/changed."

Church in Sinazeze was literally out-of-this-world. Seeing practically the whole congregation reaching out for the “touch of God” is always exciting! This is a small town, but they are building a large church. The afternoon wedding was actually another great church service.

When I repeated the words, “He is a good and faithful servant” the place exploded with cheers. The MOT-MOT School classes in this area, as always, are bearing much fruit.

The MOT-MOT School classes have students from various denominations. The students are mostly pastors and elders, yet only a few know how to lead anyone to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Everywhere MOT-MOT goes, students are so excited about “soul winning”, they actually plant churches before we get to the Church Planting syllabus. The Nguba class is already asking me to show the Jesus Film and help them plant churches in nearby villages. The host pastor in Chifusa thanked me and stressed how much the students were changing. His church attendance is overflowing. They are breaking ground for a large new church building.

While speaking at a church a couple of hours from our house, I was greeted by one of our orphans faithfully attending that church. She’s all grown up and made me even more joyous by inviting me to her wedding. She is marrying a good Christian young man. When her relatives brought her to us we saw that she was like most of our children, not only orphaned, but orphaned in a family with serious problems. The world gave her no chance of ever doing anything other than fail. God saw her need and sent her to us along with partners like you to provide. He did it again. You did it again! Thank you for giving to the Lord. Remain Faithful,
